Signing up for an account on this platform is a straightforward process that opens up a new world of goodies. While the casino doesn't give a no-deposit bonus (as is the case with most of its competitors), it offers to fully refund any losses you incur on your first day up to $200. There are also many other promos up for grabs as long as you remain active and continue depositing money into your account. Choose from a wide variety of games and enjoy responsive customer support.

Gambling should be a form of entertainment and not a way to grow your bankroll. However, since it is an addictive behavior, it might be a problem for you. At such a point, quitting is hard. That's why NJ's gambling authority offers a self-exclusion program. In this program, you can decide to take a break from gambling for some time. You won't access any online gambling site within this time since the authority will have temporarily blocked your access.

With it, anyone above 21 years and residing in New Jersey can legally enjoy themselves here. Additionally, Betfair is among the few platforms in NJ that houses both a casino and a sportsbook. Indulge in a variety of casino games, ranging from slots to live games, and when in need of a change, jump on to the bookmaker site to bet on sports and other similar markets. You can access all of this whether you're on your computer, tablet, or smartphone.

Luckily, the break wasn't long and in October 2014, Betfair secured a temporary partnership with Caesar's Entertainment. This enabled the company to stay in the New Jersey gaming scene while housing its gaming products at Caesar's. As part of the six-month arrangement, they continued to operate under Caesar's license. Again, bad luck happened and this partnership lasted for just six weeks.
