We've thoroughly reviewed BitStarz Casino and gave it a perfect reputation rating, which is the best rating any casino can get from us. In our review, we've considered the casino's player complaints, estimated revenues, license, games genuineness, customer support quality, fairness of terms and conditions, withdrawal and win limits, and other factors. So, if you were ever wondering whether this casino is safe and legit or a scam, read the full review below to learn more.

According to our research and estimates, BitStarz Casino is one of the biggest online casinos with huge revenue and number of players. The revenue of a casino is an important factor, as bigger casinos shouldn't have any issues paying out big wins, while smaller casinos could potentially struggle if you manage to win really big.

Casino bit starz

We currently have 4 complaints about this casino in our database. Because of these complaints, we've given this casino 354 black points in total. You can find more information about all of the complaints and black points in the 'Reputation explained' part of this review.

Casino bit starz

The player's account got blocked without any explanation. The complaint was closed after the player let us know that it has been resolved with the casino.

The player from Bangladesh has been blocked without further explanation. The casino responded and stated that the player's account had been involved in fraudulent activities. Sufficient evidence of this was provided, so the complaint was rejected.

Bit casino starz

The player from Brazil has requested a withdrawal prior to submitting this complaint. Unfortunately, their winnings haven't been received yet. The complaint was rejected because the player didn't respond to our messages and questions.

The player from Italy had money transferred into his casino account. Now he's experiencing difficulties requesting a refund. Player's complaint has been resolved successfully.

Casino bit starz

The player from Finland requested a self-exclusion prior to creating an account. The casino created and self-excluded a new account instead of her. However, later she created an account using different credentials and requested a deposit refund. Since we believe that this type of self-exclusion is only a goodwill gesture and the player tried to take advantage of the situation, we ended up rejecting the complaint.

The player from Cuba requested a withdrawal, but the casino blocked his account. The casino confiscated the player's winnings and refunded his deposits because he breached the maximum allowed bet. Therefore we closed the complaint.

Starz casino bit

The player's account got blocked for having multiple accounts. The casino provided sufficient evidence to support its claims.

The player from Canada is experiencing difficulties withdrawing her winnings due to ongoing verification. The player later confirmed that the withdrawal was processed successfully, therefore we marked this complaint as resolved.

Casino bit starz

The player from UK played with a free spin bonus, and the casino capped his winnings. Unfortunately, he continued playing with his balance which casino still considered as bonus funds until players request a withdrawal, therefore we were forced to reject this complaint.

The player's winnings were voided due to breach of the bonus terms. We ended up closing the complaint as 'uncertain case' because we didn't have enough information to confirm or refute the accusations.

Bit starz casino

The player from the US is dissatisfied that the casino allowed him to create an account despite the fact he is from a restricted country. Since there were no confiscated funds involved in the process, we decided to reject this complaint.

The player from Costa Rica was able to create multiple new accounts, deposit, and play in the casino despite being self-excluded. Later, it became clear that the player never indicated his personal details in the newly created accounts until after depositing and playing from the accounts, and thus, intentionally never revealed his identity. In one of the accounts, the player managed to win, however, the winnings were confiscated due to the player's breach of the Terms and Conditions. After considering all relevant facts, including the player's breach of the Terms and Conditions by creating multiple accounts as well as the fact that we believe that no errors were made honoring the player's self-exclusion on the casino's side, this case was closed in favor of the casino.

Casino starz bit

The player from Ukraine was struggling to pass the verification process. They were repeatedly asked to provide new information. Subsequently, the casino decided to verify the player's identity via a Skype call, which the player refused. Our recommendation to the player was to comply with the casino's request. We rejected the complaint because the player stopped responding.

The player from Canada has been accused of opening multiple accounts. Admittedly, another family member had an account in the same casino, using the same device. From the evidence provided by the casino, we were able to see that the issue with multiple accounts was more complex and after all the evidence was investigated, we have rejected this complaint as 'unjustified'.

Casino bit starz

The player from Brazil is dissatisfied with the verification process. We rejected the complaint because the player didn't respond to our messages and questions.

The player from Germany has been accused of breaching the Bonus T&Cs by activating a bonus. The issue was successfully resolved, the player's account was blocked by mistake.

Bit starz casino

The player's account got blocked due to account duplicity. Casino has provided evidence.

The player from US had the account blocked due to being from a restricted country. The player has also had multiple accounts. We rejected the complaint because the casino has never confiscated the player's winnings because of being from a restricted country, but because she used multiple accounts.

Starz bit casino

The player from Brazil has experienced technical problems while playing. We've rejected this complaint in our system due to a lack of evidence.

The player from Turkey had his bonus winnings cancelled due to IP match with other account. The player used a VPN to change a country in order to access the website, because he couldn't open it from his country, therefore we were forced to reject this case.

Bit casino starz

Casino bit starz

The player's bonus winnings were voided because the bonus was credited by a mistake.

The player from Germany has requested a withdrawal ten days ago. It hasn't been received yet.

Starz casino bit

The player from Italy is experiencing difficulties verifying his account.

After being previously self-excluded the player was able to reopen her account, supposedly without any problems. The casino seemingly didn't enforce their responsible gambling policy, which means that the player's account shouldn't have been reopened in the first place and the player lost an unknown large sum of money. The casino disregarded the decision of the mediator representatives and the complaint remained unresolved.

Casino bit starz

The player had his winnings confiscated after being accused of bonus abuse, however the player didn't claim any bonuses. The player managed to resolve the problem with the casino.

The player from United States has registered an account despite their country was listed between restricted ones. The player stopped responding to our messages and we were forced to reject this complaint.

Casino bit starz

Casino starz bit

The player from Czech Republic is inquiring about casino website accessibility. After a closer examination, we ended up rejecting this complaint as unjustified.

The player had previously self-excluded from the casino but was still allowed to play. The casino just informed them they would not be liable for the player's losses. After 4 months of play, many deposits, and withdrawals, following one bigger win, the player's account got closed, only deposits were returned. This is not how self-exclusion works and the casino's actions in preventing gambling addiction are found non-compliant.

Casino starz bit

The player from Canada has been accused of opening multiple accounts and had his winnings from a bonus voided. The complaint was rejected as unjustified. The casino provided sufficient evidence proving the player had in fact breached the Terms and Conditions

The player from Australia has requested a withdrawal two weeks ago. Unfortunately, it hasn't reached the bank yet because of problems at payment provider. After a few days player got paid.

The player from Czech Republic had his bonus winnings cancelled after requesting deactivation of a promotional offer. After a closer examination, we ended up rejecting this complaint as unjustified.

Casino starz bit

The player from Canada has requested a withdrawal. Unfortunately, it has been pending due to ongoing verification. We rejected the complaint because the player didn't respond to our messages and questions.

The player from the US has been accused of opening multiple accounts and his winnings were confiscated.

The player from China had his winnings from blackjack voided after he played with bonus money generated from bonus spins. The bonus expired before the player managed to meet the wagering requirements. This resulted in money disappearing from his account, however, the casino didn't confiscate anything, therefore we rejected this complaint.

The player from Australia has deposited funds in to his account and tried to redeem a Deposit bonus. Unfortunately, it wasn't granted. After a closer examination, we rejected this complaint as unjustified.

According to the casino, this player failed their verification because her Russian wasn't good enough and her English was perfect. She said it was her daughter who helped her to file the complaint and they didn't like that. The casino confiscated her winnings of €2,000 and won't change their decision. No other details are available afterward.
