I love playing. But the only negative I have is when I win loads of coins quickly my game keeps stalling or I lose connection and find it very hard to even get a bonus. I was on 30 odd billion last week and could not connect with my tablet. I lost all my coins in a day with repeated messages cannot connect. This is the only concern I have. This is not the first time this has happened. Apart from this I love playing caeser slots very much

Sehr gute App, Bonus bekommt man eigentlich genug und man kann auch gut spielen wenn man nicht ständig Geld einzahlt. Ich spiele gerne Slotpark und für ein, zwei Mal am Tag reicht der Betrag vollkommen aus, man braucht ja auch nicht den ganzen Tag an seinem Handy rumsuchen ;) ich finde am Besten das man gemeinsam mit einem Team gegen andere antreten kann, da investiert man dann auch gern mal den ein oder anderen Euro um sein Team ans Ziel zu führen :)

Good for an ice breaker or just to pass some time. But the gameplay isn't intuitive. After a few tries to understand the mechanics, it just boils down to guess work. 1 star for the gameplay and 1 star for the graphics.

Spiele schon lange, erst in den letzten paar Wochen bekommt man zusätzlich Bonus, was sehr gut gemacht ist, allerdings kann man so viele Punkte haben wie man möchte, die wenn man mal groß gewinnt auch sehr schnell wieder verloren gehen. Habe mehrere Varianten gespielt, Gewinn oder Punkte vermehren keine Chance leider. Daher nur 4 von 5 Sternen

This game would be a little better if you could stop your spins manually in my opinion. Also a higher betting Maximum and more slot game options but other than that it's great for what it already has.

I thought the game was interesting. However, after a few taps, the screen is frozen except for the timer. You can't quit, you can't change the tool. Nothing. What's the point?

I've been playing this game for more than a year now and must admit it can get addictive. Overall it's fun and exciting but you can tell it's just there to make money, constant offers to spend apparently in US$ when in the UK we of course use GB£. The stated amount in $ actually debits your card in £. You can win the virtual money occasionally but then you're encouraged to bet higher amounts and it often takes your balance down to a tiny amount without winning again. Don't waste money on something which doesn't win you actual money! I can tell it's just a money spinner for the developer even though I enjoy the occasional 'win'. It's very frustrating when you have virtual balance of $18m and it plays down to nothing with no big wins. Don't bother with something which is just there to take your money!

It's a shame you lose such a lot of credits you can win a lot but it takes it all back very quickly you don't get enough credits to play at your level the machine I'm on now can't be played less than 10 million well once it collected my daily credits had 2 goes and it's gone such a shame because the machines are beautifully designed and I'd love to play longer

This is just an ok game if you stick to the rule of not spending any real money. Using the free hourly credits, I can see what this game is designed to do - extract a players cash & then to use them up very very quickly to get more. Having played for several months now, the pattern is you will get a session where the machine rolls & you can get to over a billion credits. However, your credits will soon run out, doesn't matter if you change machines or not, you'll be back at zero very soon. The free spins feature must be one of the most frustrating - win big with a minimal bet & less when you have upped your stake. So, 3 stars from me because this an enjoyable game in small doses but when played at length, you can see just how cynical it is - spend real money to reward only the developers because there is no player development.

Edit from recent update. The only game where more more more means less less less. The minimum bet has jumped from 1 million credits to 5 million on most machines the hourly bonus hasn't actually gone up even though its says it has. I get 20 million credits an hour. So I can now spin 4 time an hour. Down from the nine times an hour. Great! Watch the videos and you get 3 million credits. Used to get 3 spins out of that now you can't because it's 5 million a spin. Basically if you want to have something to just pass some time this is not it. You have to work for everything and then play little amounts to keep credits. When I started this game it was really good. You could actually win big and keep credits for days at a time. It's impossible to complete the daily challenge because of its either connect to Facebook (I don't want to) or win 1.2 billion coins. (Edit, now gone up to 6 billion credits) Since the updates it's clear you just can't win big when your playing the way I do. I watch the videos to earn them money and collect bonus but the little credits you have to play with will last you about 2 mins then you would have to wait an hour before collecting again. Make it enjoyable again and let people win something to keep them playing.

I've had this app around 4 years and played when I can but recently due to not working because of the lockdown I've played much more and have noticed a lack of consistency as one day it will let you win and win and build cash as you're trying to gain your challenges but the next even though you play exactly the same it just takes and takes. It took me 4 days to move up 100 billion in cash but only one day to lose the same amount even though I did nothing different. Plus it took away my favourite game a while ago which I enjoyed playing immensely. Please give more consistency and bring back charmillions. Now on day 4 of doing nothing but lose cash :(I don't know why this is but in all the years I have been playing I've never experienced anything like this I've now lost over 150 billion in 4 days and no matter how much I bet it's still losing more than winning.

Am Anfang echt gerne gespielt da es einen nicht nur abgezockt hat sondern auch echt oft Gewinne gegeben hat, aber seit dem letzten Update habe ich das Gefühl das die Gewinnchancen runtergeschraubt wurden obwohl es angeblich zertifiziert wurde das es ein zufallsprinzip ist, aber Zweifel da langsam dran bsp. habe einen guten Gewinn gemacht aber danach nur noch die selben Linien bekommen habe & egal bei welchem Symbol die Linien dauerhaft mir die Hälfte meines Einsatz gegeben haben was echt komisch war. Das es am Anfang ein zufallsprinzip gab kann echt gut sein, glaube aber das es nach den letzten updates überarbeitet wurde & der zufallsprinzip damit entfernt wurde. Mittlerweile gibt es anscheinend kein Casino spiel mehr wo man nicht gezwungen wird echt Geld reinzustecken traurig. Das Spiel gehörte echt mal zu meinen Favoriten aber das ist mittlerweile Geschichte. Geldgier ist anscheinend mittlerweile normal bei Entwickler geworden.
