

Little Red Riding Hood

Little Red Riding Hood lived in a forest with her mother. One day, she went to visit her grandma. Her mom made a blue berry pie for Grandma. “This is for Grandma’s birthday. I’ll put it in your basket.” said Mom. “Yes mom!”

On the way to Grandma’s house, Little Red Riding Hood met a wolf. “Hi! Where are you going?” said the wolf. “I’m going to Grandma’s house. Her house is behind those trees.”

The wolf ran to Grandma’s house and ate Grandma up. He quickly put on Grandma’s clothes and got into her bed. Soon Little Red Riding Hood reached the house. She looked at the wolf.

“Grandma, what big eyes you have!” “All the better to see you with!” said the wolf. “Grandma, what big ears you have!” “All the better to hear you with!” said the wolf. “Grandma, what a big nose you have!” “All the better to smell you with!” said the wolf.

“Grandma, what big teeth you have!” “All the better to eat you with!” shouted the wolf.

He was ready to swallow up Little Red Riding Hood.

Then, a woodcutter passed by and heard a loud scream. He ran to the house and hit the wolf over the head. The wolf opened his mouth wide and Grandma jumped out.

“Are you all right, Grandma?” “Thanks God! I’m fine!” said Grandma. Little Red Riding Hood took out the blueberry pie and said, “Happy birthday, Grandma!” “Wow! How sweet you are.” said Grandma.
