

The Magic Bucket

Once upon a time, there was an old farmer called Jon. He worked hard every day, but he still couldn't provide enough food for his family. He must find a way to make more money.

One day, he saw a big bucket at his farm. "Who left the bucket here? This is huge! What can the bucket do?" he asked. After his work, Jon put his shovel in the bucket. Then he started to drag the bucket home. On his way to his house, the bucket became heavier and heavier. When Jon got home, he was surprised because there were hundreds of shovels.

The next day, Jon sold all the shovels at the market. Soon, all of them were sold. Jon earned a lot of money. When he went back home, he put different things in the bucket. He placed an apple in, and in no time, hundreds of apples popped out. "This bucket is magical. I must use the bucket smart."

Tina, Jon's wife, had an idea. "Why don't we open a restaurant?" said Tina. "Sounds great!" said Jon. They put different vegetables, fruits, and meat in the bucket. Soon, lots of vegetables, fruits, and meat popped out. "Great! Now we can open a restaurant." said Jon.

The next day, Jon and Tina opened their new restaurant and sold lots of dishes. "The food here tastes delicious." said the customers. Jon earned lots of money from the restaurant. Now he doesn't need to worry about food anymore.
