

Sid and Tim

Sid and Tim are cousins. One day, Sid goes to Tim's house.

"Look! I have a new watch. It's blue," says Sid. "It's cool!" says Tim.

They are happy.

One day morning, Tim feels bored at home. He calls Sid, "Hello! I am bored at home now. What day is it today? Do you want to play?" asks Tim. "It's Saturday. Let's play!" says Sid.

It is sunny. Tim and Sid are happy. They walk in a forest.

Soon, someone is coming. "Oh no! What's that?" Tim asks. "That is a black bear! It's mad!" Sid says. They yell, "Let's run!"

Tim cannot find Sid. Sid is behind the tree. He is very worried.

The bear is near Tim. He is very worried too. The bear's head is on Tim, but it doesn't hurt him. Then the bear turns around and leaves.

Sid runs to Tim. "Are you okay?" asks Sid. "Yes, I am." says Tim.

Sid and Tim are happy and safe. They go back home together.
