

A Silly Lion

“Help! Help! There’s something behind us,” says Lion. “What is that?” asks Tiger. “It’s something dark and scary. Run as fast as you can,” says Lion. They run and run. “Is the scary thing still there?” asks Tiger. “Yes. It is running, too. Run as fast as you can,” says Lion.

Tiger and Lion go along a river. “Is the scary thing still there?” says Tiger. “Yes. It’s coming along the river. Run as fast as you can,” says Lion. They go over the stones. “Is the scary thing still there?” asks Tiger. “Yes. It’s coming over the stones. Run as fast as you can.” says Lion.

There’s a big tree in front of them. They run up the tree. “Is the scary thing still there?” asks Tiger. “Yes. It’s on the ground waiting for us. What can we do?” says Lion. “I can scare it away. Show me where it is,” says Tiger. “It is right down there. Look!” says Lion. Tiger looks at the scary thing. Then he laughs loudly. “You are a silly lion. That is your shadow,” says Tiger.
