Alternatively, you can use roulette strategies and betting systems to win.

It was this hidden chip tactic that gave Richard Marcus the last five years of his career before he retired after having acquired a healthy $12 million in winnings without ever having been arrested.

Players can then bet on the numbers that are more likely to appear, confident that they will win in the long run.

This technique usually involves the dealer as he is the person that can most easily place chips onto the betting area without being spotted.

While such scams can be effective, most players attempting such scams are ultimately caught.

Now, instead of focusing on the chips themselves, some people have even started modifying aspects of the game to increase their chances of winning and reduce the house edge.

In some cases, though, the legal route may not be an option, you could be forfeiting your ability to play in a land-based or online casino ever again.
