This is quite a common myth in the gambling industry. The payout ratio (RTP) is not influenced by the casino you play at, but by the games you play. Generally speaking, if you play the same game at two different casinos, your chances of winning are the same, at least if we ignore factors like bonuses, promotional offers, etc.

Online betting sites in Singapore work almost like the traditional offline casinos but with a few subtle differences. For instance, unlike offline Singapore casino, these online casino singapore counterparts do not have a dealer to play with because the online casino games such as online slot games are offered in a virtual environment, but they still offer similar gambling experience. The online gambling systems are operated with highly efficient technology and therefore do not need a human dealer to work efficiently. With that being said, live casino games with great bonuses are also available with these casino online.

One of the specific signatures of a trusted online casino Singapore is the existence of a VIP program. As a form of promotion, the VIP will rate the amount of members' loyalty and rank it to suit the specific degree level of the program. In a standard way, there are various levels: from the lowest to the highest one. To gain the amount of loyalty, many things can be done by the members: deposit a certain amount of money, play a number of games, become members in a particular period, etc.

All online casinos have a mathematical advantage against players. Casinos rely on this advantage to make a profit, but some of them go even further and use unfair practices to increase this advantage beyond the one provided by the house edge. We inspect each casino in detail, so that we can recommend casinos which behave fairly towards players.

We begin at this aspect first since we believe that such is crucial to be looked up to. Nowadays, the existence of mobile access is a must. Back then, the practice of online casinos was dominated by the appliance of the desktop platform, whether in the form of a computer program or an internet website (HTML and CSL). But nowadays, it is not enough. An online casino must follow the latest trend by supporting the app platform for smartphones, whether based on Android or iOS. It will ease their customers and members in reaching the available services and products.

Still have a direct correlation with the above aspects, the number of payout ratios also come as our concern. An online casino must always do anything quickly and precisely. That is the main deal with the payout ratios: the return percentage given by the providers/brands. The bigger the payout ratio, it will be better. It is since cutting the amount of transaction money is becoming so common, whether in the form of taxes or platforming fees. Hence, we only put our concern for online casinos that do not burden their players and customers a lot.
