While it is not uncommon for slot machines to have jackpots, most of them do not have progressive jackpots. The major difference between slots with regular jackpots and those with progressives is that the regular ones are limited to a fixed amount whereas progressives usually continue to climb until they're one. This is how players are able to score life-changing wins playing Lucky Creek jackpot games.

Lucky Creek online casino jackpots are powered by Saucify. What's good about this is that Saucify jackpot slots offer significant prize pools. This can lead to you winning thousands, tens of thousands or even hundreds of thousands of dollars in as little as one spin!

The pot is able to accumulate in size due to the fact that the prizes for each slot are linked among all the operators who offer that specific game. In other words, the more players play these games at the sites that offer them (Lucky Creek included), the more the jackpot will grow!

Hi, I'm the girl who's sleeping in the bushes. Literally, been waiting for someone to toss me a doggie bag. I'm the person who's supposed to be standing in the picture with you. With an even bigger cheesier grin than you, with the hopes of you feeling sorry for me, or irritated I won't stop photo bombing you. And, you really want me to go away! So you pay me to please you alone. But you realize I'm your future good luck charm, having a change of heart asking me, "To marry you, and would you please stay?" I've been writing, talking and invisioning Vegas since being a little girl. Now here I am writing pointless, random thoughts because I am desperate to no longer be hidden in my dreams of Vegas. And come from out of the bushes and at least hang out at the sign of "Welcome To Las Vegas!" Taking a real picture with my new millionaire friend, in front of a sign with really cool lights! Even if the "friend," part is a complete lie. At least I have an authentic picture of me standing in front of a sign saying "Welcome!" INSTEAD OF GOODBYE.

We just so thrilled for all the winners of these giant jackpots, we can hardly keep from dancing around gleefully on their behalf. There is no place in Las Vegas for jealousy or resentment!

Congratulations man, and you were only betting $4.00, that's pretty cool, well I am sure you are hooked for life now...lol ☐ If you weren't already, try to help at least one person in need, we need more of that. Generosity goes a long way...and who knows the person you will help might be able to just stay a night at the Circa..haha

Update (9/19/22): Since other media outlets are sharing more about the winner, we feel more comfortable doing so. Thayer owns a home and business security company in the aforementioned Cheyenne, Wyoming. Thayer had reportedly just sat down at the machine before his win. He won after just four tries. He'd just told his friend it would be great to win the jackpot. As we've shared in previous stories about progressive jackpots, it took about four hours for the game manufacturer to arrive for verification of the jackpot and start the paperwork process. On the day of his win, Thayer got a check for $63,000, with the rest of his winnings to follow. Hilariously, Thayer said, "I actually found out I have about 30 more relatives than I had the day before."

On a big win, 24% of the win is withheld for the IRS. She do take a bite, don't she?

The revelry lasts for several minutes, until the slot manufacturer shows up and then it's all business. (Casinos don't generally pay progressives, it's the slot maker who pays.)

When a player wins on a WAP (wide area progressive), they get to choose between a lump sum or annuity, after taxes are withheld (usually 27% of the win).

Awesome dude I wish I could win even half of that heck I would be happy with a quarter of what you won first thing I would do is get a house/apartment of my own so I don't have to live with friends anymore cause having your own home is so sweet.... it's been way too long since I have had my own place

In the case of a $1,437,768.17 jackpot, that's $388,197 off the top.

Fun fact: Circa is owned by the same folks at Golden Gate and The D. A player won $1.4 million at The D on May 4, 2022 and another lucky bastard won $1.3 million at Golden Gate on June 2, 2022.

What's even better is the fact that Cash Wheel and Dream Wheel are available in both classic (3-reel) and video slot (5-reel) versions. Plus all of them are jackpot games! This means if you want to enjoy a more traditional slots experience that is more about simplistic fun, you can.

This isn't the first million-dollar-plus jackpot at Circa. A player snagged $1,075,234.28 on Nov. 14, 2021.

The player has the option of taking a lump sum for the rest of the jackpot, or they can choose an annuity (annual payments).

When a multi-million-dollar jackpot hits on a progressive machine, there is much revelry.

I have tried several high rated slot games. This one is the very best of them all. I haven't seen another one I can control the spin start and stop feature. All the other ones once you hit start you have to wait for the game to decide when to stop spinning. This game gives you the option to stop the spinning at any time. Kind of gives you the feeling of being in control of your fortune.

It's fun to keep tabs on who tips what on such big wins, and by "fun," of course, we mean "mortifying." Mortifying because most people tip zilch on million-dollar jackpots. Cue the sad trombone.

If the player chooses an annuity, they'll get yearly payments, and a check for the first payment up front.

It was a $1 denomination machine, with fives lines, so that means the player bet $5 to win the $1.4 million. That's a solid return on investment.

On the other hand, if you prefer one that is more modern and is equipped with all the extra features like wilds, scatters and free spins, this is an option, too. Most importantly, big prizes can still be won on each game, regardless of the one you want to play!

I won 10K on the slots last month at Circa. The casino paid me to my surprise in cold hard cash in my hand. No taxes, just straight cash in front of everyone. I had to walk through every casino on Fremont St. just to feel safe in getting to my car. No complaints though. I would do it every single day if I could.

I cannot believe that people are that cheap you just won $1 million and you can't even leave a tip if I won $1 million I would get between 500 and $1000 to my server that's terrible no tip wish we could take the money back as for Vegas I go to three times a year please get rid of the resort fees and why so many homeless people on the strip come on clean it up! I'm paying over 150 a night for a room I don't wanna see a girl sleeping in
