The one feature that makes the difference here is the fact that besides live chat, other options are also available. With 4 separate e-mail addresses, each and every one addressing specific situations and more than one telephone number to be used by members from different countries, the support provided is always of the highest quality. Skype and traditional mail services are also available. All the above has raised 32Red's customer support to a level difficult to be reached by anybody else in the industry.

Truth to be told, 32Red remains to this day the most fortified application in the industry of online casino businesses. To ensure the fairness of all games in terms of winning odds, continuous auditing takes place by third parties. eCogra, the most trustworthy company in this field, has taken over auditing responsibility for 32Red. The online casino tends to hide nothing from its members including payout reports that are published every single month for many years now. The kind of transparency and responsibility that 32Red present is admirable. That is why this site has such a high place in this field as well in comparison to other online casinos out there.

This 32Red Casino Review is talking about the UK licensed online casino, which is owned by the Kindred Group. 32Red is one of the leading casino-bookies in Great Britain, with the company also operating in many other countries where they either have regulation, or no laws stopping them from doing business.

32Red has optimised their online casino to ensure you can play at home on your desktop or laptop, or on the go – perfect while you're waiting for a coffee or following your partner around the shops. Not all devices are equal though since optimisation for each device has a different timeline.

If you have multiple devices you can use the one login across your desktop, laptop, smartphone and tablet too.

There's less games on the mobile version of 32Red – this is the case with all mobile casinos. But just as the instant play 32Red casino has Microgaming is responsible for more than 500 real money casino games. The majority are similar to the format of the electronic games found at land-based casinos as they are run on Random Number Generator (RNG) software. Many people believe this software is rigged and while it does give the casino an advantage, online you can find some slots which have a better house edge than land-based dealer run roulette.

One great example is Hot Ink by Microgaming at 32Red – the title offers a house edge of 2.5% which compares to European land-based roulette at a house edge of 2.7% and slots at land-based casinos which usually have a huge house edge of 8-13%.

Casino 32red online

Online blackjack, roulette and other table games by Microgaming also offer a low house edge – much lower than automated games – including Classic Blackjack available at 32Red with a house edge as low as 0.13% when the perfect basic strategy is in play.

You can find a range of other table games under their own subcategories at 32Red too. As we mentioned above, Microgaming also offer unique games you can find at land-based casinos including Casino War on the downloadable platform. 32Red also host bingo on their site – you can read our full review of 32Red Bingo here.

32red casino online

Table limits range start at $0.10 and there are high limit versions of many roulette, blackjack, poker and other games available.

If you are still sceptical when it comes to playing RNG games you can opt for live dealer games instead. These are run by dealers similarly to the traditional table games in land-based casinos. In fact, some providers are set up in real casinos – but 32Red offers Microgaming live dealers and Evolution Gaming live dealers who are set up in studios.

32red online casino

Another incentive to playing online is the promotions on offer. You can score rewards at land-based casinos after you've placed enough cash on the tables or in the slots but online you start reaping the rewards as soon as you open your account.

There's the First Deposit bonus where you can get $32 for every $20 deposited up to $160 the first time you make a deposit. There's a 40x wagering requirement and maximum bet sizes are reduced when playing with the bonus cash.

32red online casino

There's also a range of seasonal promotions including free spins and cashback promotions – be sure to read the terms and conditions as capped withdrawal limits or wagering requirements may apply – plus a loyalty program called Red Ruby Rewards where you can accrue points and be treated as a VIP player.

You can fund your casino account with several payment methods at 32Red including Visa and MasterCard credit, debit or prepaid methods; Neteller, Skrill, and other e-Wallets; paysafecard; and bank transfers.

Online casino 32red

Deposits and withdrawals are processed instantly with all methods. There's no fees incurred by the casino – there may be with the payment option you are using if gambling transactions incur a fee with your financial institution so be sure to look this up.

Similar to Facebook Messenger, or if you're really old school and preferred MSN, 32Red has a live chat where you can contact a customer representative with any queries you may have.

32red online casino

There's also a Help Centre for less urgent matters – or issues which may be asked frequently – or you can send mail to 32Red Plc., 741 Europort, Gibraltar.

32red casino online

While performing our 32Red online casino review, we were equally impressed by the number of titles as well as the quality of the games. This wasn't entirely surprising given that 32Red uses Microgaming software, which is famous for its appealing graphics and gameplay. Although the selection and interface will vary slightly depending on your particular platform, you should expect a great experience.

Like most gambling sites, 32Red is bursting at the seams with slot machines. Enjoy hundreds of different games ranging from throwback 3-reel slots to console-quality video slots. You'll find slot machines in every imaginable theme ranging from Ancient Egypt to Elvis. Naturally, licensed games like Brides Maids, Game of Thrones, and Jurassic Park are the most popular. Still, our 32Red casino review team highly recommends you check out the progressive jackpot games like Mega Moolah, especially if you like the prospect of playing for millions. If you feel like unleashing your competitive spirit, you'll love the slot tournaments.

Online 32red casino

While performing this 32Red online casino review, we were blown away by the choice of table games. You'll find 26 different types of blackjack, nine styles of roulette, sic bo, baccarat, red dog, craps, and so much more. You can even enjoy bingo, poker, and sports betting at sister sites.

You'll have a hard time locating a better selection of live dealer tables than what's available at 32Red. The gambling site offers blackjack, roulette, baccarat, casino hold'em, ultimate Texas hold'em, three card poker, Caribbean stud poker, and more at a wide variety of stakes. Our 32Red review team had no trouble finding a seat. Just be warned that once you come face to face with one of these handsome or gorgeous croupiers, you may never want to play conventional games again.

32red casino online

While conducting our 32Red mobile review, we noticed that both iPad and iPhone apps were available for download in the Apple App Store. We do recommend heading to 32Red first to confirm availability in your country. Even if software isn't available in your region, you'll still be able to enjoy the action by playing in Safari or Firefox.

Even though 32Red's bonuses aren't as big as other sites offer, we would probably recommend the online casino even if they didn't offer financial incentives to sign up. Nonetheless, there is free cash to be had. While updating our 32Red online casino review, we found that the site was awarding new players $32 in free cash for every $20 deposited up to a $160 maximum. If you don't feel like making a commitment, you can still receive $10 in free cash to play with.

Casino 32red online

Just keep in mind that terms and conditions do apply when claiming bonuses. Our 32Red review experts recommend reading the fine print so there are no surprises. In general, you'll need to meet some play through requirements before you can fully access your bonus and withdraw your related winnings. If you play slots, you'll need to wager 40 times your bonus amount. Unfortunately, the wagering requirements balloon if you play other games. For example, the wagering requirements for roulette and blackjack are 200 and 2000 times respectively. Some games like craps don't qualify at all.

Promotions aren't just for new players at 32Red. You'll find everything from leaderboard contests and daily free rolls to reload bonuses. Just check the calendar for the latest offers. It's the smartest way to get the most out of your game.

Casino online 32red

It's easy to get the recognition you deserve with the Red Ruby Reward loyalty program. After signing up, you'll earn points whenever you enjoy real money games. As your rack up points you can climb the loyalty ladder from bronze to silver, gold, platinum, and ultimately club rouge. Each level increases your earning potential, which is great since you can redeem your points for free play. You can also earn additional benefits like personalized promos and bonuses.

Our 32Red review team was more than satisfied with the level of support we received at the online casino. It's comforting to know that if you ever experience issues, help is only a click, or call away. The site offers 24/7 toll free support and a handy live chat feature. You can also send an email if your issue doesn't require immediate attention. Whatever your concern happens to be, prepare to be treated with respect by the knowledgeable staff.
