Casino Betting Sites was started and is run by an avid group of gamblers and casino players. When we say avid, we seriously mean it. The team that works for us not only spends a lot of time trying to win some cash, but most of us work in the gambling industry. We live and breathe gambling, which means that you can trust us when it comes to the advice we bring to the table. We spend hours reviewing casino sites, both new and old so that we can bring you a selection of the most trustworthy and legit betting sites online.

Most of what we do here at Casino Betting Sites is dedicated to reviews. Sure, there are not a lot of major online casinos and betting websites operating within the states, but there are a lot of sites that should not legally be operating (yeah, this is what happens when you have awful laws). We want to steer you towards websites where it is safe to gamble. Here are a few of the things that we consider when we are reviewing casinos:

Right off the bat, we are going to cover whether the online casino or betting site is a legal place to gamble. It needs to be licensed in the various states that it is operating, for instance. If the online casino is not licensed, then it probably is not going to be a good place to put your money as you really can't trust it.

This is one of the major downsides of gambling in the United States, there are so many online casinos trying to skirt that rule, however, if you go on the notion of playing at casinos and betting sites that have top reputations, you can't go wrong. We always suggest that no matter where you are located, you check your local gambling laws to decide whether you can play for real money online or not.

In order to attract people to their website, many online casinos and betting sites will have bonuses in place. You can think of this as similar to 'free cash'. You deposit money into your account, you play. Simple as that. The bonuses in America are nowhere near as good as in the rest of the world, but at least they exist. Our team will go through some of the best bonuses for you. You can view all of the latest (and best!) USA casino bonuses here!

Want the tools needed to find the best casinos and online betting sites, without reading through review after review? Well, luckily for you, our team have been working incredibly hard to put together some amazing reviews for you. These reviews are jam-packed with all sorts of advice that you can use to determine whether a site is good or not. Over time, we will also have tons of information about improving your online gambling experience. Check our betting sites guides section regularly as you never know what you may uncover.

We're sure that you would have come across "Bitcoin" in one way or another. A large trend is for U.S gambling sites to accept Bitcoin deposits and withdrawals. In fact, most gambling sites these days do and we can say that it has definitely made it easier to deposit and withdraw as well as get better casino bonuses and perks as a player too! (note: this is because using Bitcoin as a payment processor has extremely low fees compared to credit cards and other eWallets) This really is a win-win situation, and as a result of this, there are some fantastic Bitcoin gambling sites out there that we recommend!

We seriously suggest that you get started by browsing through the plethora of information that we have packed into this website. We are working hard to ensure that we keep our site 'up to date' too, so you can expect even more information to be added over the coming weeks, months, and even years. If you can't wait to start betting online, and we can't blame you if that is the case, then there are plenty of top betting sites listed above.

These are all places where our team plays, so you know that you can trust them!
