No, it is not. Free casino games are basically the same games that you can play in real-money online casinos, but without real money involved. When you load any of the game, you are given a certain amount of virtual currency, which doesn't have any real value. You can then play and increase your balance; however, you can never cash out the credits you accumulate in the game.

As we know the gambling industry is quickly spreading worldwide but the gambling laws differ for every country and in the case of the United States, the gambling legislation varies on the premises of every state. When it comes to the gambling regulation procedures in the state of Arizona, most of the gambling activities are considered illegal but online gambling is simply not regulated by the authorities. This means that players that are located in Arizona can gamble at offshore online casinos without any restrictions as long as the online platforms of their choice are licensed and certified by a reputable jurisdiction such as the New Jersey Division of Enforcement. Of course, this is a requirement that is going to provide players with some of the most important features of an online casino – trustworthiness, and safety. Our team at CasinoDaddy.com recognizes how hard the choice of an Online Phoenix Casino might be especially for an online player that is just joining the casino industry which is why we have gathered the most important information you may need so feel free to check out our list of recommendations!

Even though the state of Arizona is still not among the states that have legalized all gambling activities, the authority is currently working on legalizing sport betting on the premises of Arizona. However, when it comes to online gambling, there is no current restriction on offshore casinos, and enforcement is not taken which means gamblers are free to wager their funds online at all of the Phoenix online casinos. Nevertheless, you should always keep in mind that the online venue of your choice should be initially researched and proven as fully licensed and reliable as otherwise, you might become a victim of internet fraud. This is the reason why the team at CasinoDaddy.com is here to help out every gambler from Phoenix with the most important information gathered on this page!

Las Vegas is a four-and-a half hour car ride away and they have a few casinos as well. However, when staying in or around Phoenix you have many gambling options and you can be sure to find exactly what you are looking for. No matter what game you want to play and the limit you want to play it you will find it in the Phoenix area.

There are some exceptions, though. Some game providers allow casinos to choose from multiple versions of the same game, each with a different RTP. This means that the game you play for real money can theoretically have a lower RTP than the free version. This doesn't apply to all game providers, but it's definitely worth pointing out. We suggest checking the RTP in your selected online casino just to make sure.
