Baccarat has a certain glamour and sophistication in its gameplay and for that reason, it is a hugely popular casino game. This is the game of choice of James Bond himself, and maybe that is why players tend to lean toward this game more compared to other casino games.

When you are ready to start the game just click on Deal and you will receive your five cards. You can select some cards to hold and some to dismiss, then click on the Draw and the cards will be changed and if you have a winning hand you also have the option to double your winnings or collect your current winnings.

The game starts with the dealer placing one face-up card in the player's box and one face-up card in the Banker's box. The process is repeated once again. When the two cards total more than 10 in value then the second digit will show the real value of the hand. For instance, if you draw a 10 and a 3, which adds up to 13 in total value, and your hand will be considered to be worth 3.

Lastly, for a special treat, take your Platinum Play to a whole new level and experience online gambling like never before playing blackjack, roulette, or baccarat with a live dealer. With live dealer games you may carry on a conversation with the croupier and other players while engaging in a game that includes the dealing of actual cards onto a real gaming table or the excitement generated by the spinning of a roulette wheel and movement of the game's silver ball. While you are playing online, you can have an experience that's very close to the real thing. And at Platinum Play, if you wish, your live dealer can even be a Playboy Bunny!

Although we would recommend Platinum Play even if they didn't have a great bonus offer, you'll be pleased to learn that you can get up to $1,000 and 50 complimentary slot machine spins when you sign up. The bonus offer is spread over your first five deposits and you'll be able to claim a 100% match bonus up to $200 on each one. You'll be granted your free spins along with your third deposit. Like most sites, you'll have to meet some basic wagering requirements before you can withdraw your bonus and related winnings. These start at 40x, which is about average at sites that cater to Australians and Canadians.

At Platinum Play, currently, there are over 20 progressive jackpot slots to choose from and they are the ones that are most popular between both novice and seasoned players too.

Once you get past the site and actually start playing, things get a lot better thanks to the renowned Microgaming software. A full collection that has more than 600 casino games is very impressive to see nowadays, especially when they are all from one single provider. However, the slots take up most of the space and the promised variety doesn't extend to the other categories. Platinum Play Casino remains a top site for international customers and it provides multiple languages to better welcome players from different countries.

Depending on which version you choose to play, Blackjack can be played with 1 or 8 decks of cards. The idea behind the game is to collect a hand that is closest to a value of 21, without going bust. The first thing you need to learn is the value of each card.
