To get your business to rise from being an unknown online casino to ranking on the first page of Google for high difficulty keywords takes time and patience. Do not expect to see your organic traffic rise immediately: not in a few days or months at least.

Online reviews and testimonials can have a significant impact on your site's conversion rate. People will naturally review your casino, but you can also encourage them to provide feedback about your services, as well. As you gain more positive reviews and testimonials and highlight them on your site, your SEO will continue to strengthen.

It's also worth noting that you should always opt for natural keyword usage when it comes to SEO for casinos. Search engines penalize sites that stuff too many keywords into their copy, so even if you do it with the intention of improving your SEO, it could actually hurt your site in the long run.

The golden rule with SEO for online casinos, and all SEO for that matter, is to write for the reader and not for Google. You can't trick the Google algorithm, and even if you find a way, your hard work will be undone by the time the next update arrives. Google is smart, and it's getting smarter. If you really want to appeal to it, you need to think ahead.

Yes! Blogger outreach remains as essential to casino SEO as it does for any other industry, although the process can be more difficult and more time-consuming for content related to the iGaming sector. In practical terms, this translates to a little more resistance from some more mainstream outlets. iGaming SEO outreach packages may require more specialist sites – namely, those specifically related to online gaming – or a less direct approach in terms of creative content. Ocere's SEO outreach services team has successfully outreached many such sites with good Domain Authority scores and organic traffic numbers, and we now boast a network in excess of 40,000 webmasters, bloggers and news outlets with readerships spanning a wide range of fields and industries.

SEO, short for search engine optimization, is the broad term used to describe all the efforts you make online to raise your website's visibility and attract more traffic. As you use relevant keywords and post high-authority content, search engines like Google will recognize you as a reputable business and rank you well in the results of users' searches. Over time, this will lead to more site visitors, and ultimately more guests at your casino.

In the world of gambling SEO, content is king, which means it's essential to have a capable casino writer on your team. You can never underestimate the value that a capable casino content writer can provide for your business, from engaging content to eye-catching headlines and [...]

Self exclude from all online casinos

A capable casino writer will have a good grasp of SEO. If they have experience writing for casinos, they should be knowledgeable about casino SEO as well. However, one writer can't be expected to manage all of your SEO.

For online casinos and gambling websites besides having a mobile compatible website, it is quite essential that you coordinate it with an app that allows your users to browse through odds, live scores, casino games, and other assets comfortably. Developing an app that is accessible and that gives your client a satisfying betting experience, will boost your brand and your website traffic too.

More often than not, whether a site is required for casino SEO or non-gaming SEO, we are led by the requirements of our clients. Domain Authority and/or a high Trust Flow are typically the quality requirements, but we also recommend sites with good levels of traffic shown in SEMRush.

We have been working alongside iGaming clients to devise original and strong casino SEO strategies for more than ten years now, garnering strong experience with many of the largest and best known casino brands: Betway, Unibet, 888, 32Red, NetBet, PokerStars, Ladbrokes, William Hill, and many smaller outfits. From technical SEO to blogger outreach, affordable SEO outreach services and iGaming creative content, our team are fully equipped to navigate the complex world of casino SEO. This is a difficult area to work in – particularly when authenticity is so fundamental to the value of a comprehensive strategy – but our SEO packages have produced significant results for iGaming and white label clients around the world.

Building visibility on search engine results pages offers sites the opportunity to give themselves significantly more weight within organic channels, and to ensure steady growth within authentic audiences who may otherwise have found themselves on a competitor's page. When the more traditional avenues for advertising are making it more difficult to reach out to these audiences, SEO for casinos has become a crucial mainstay for any digital marketing campaign.

Similar to sports websites, casino and gambling niches have very specific features when it comes to SEO. First of all, it is a market with several restrictions geographically, as many countries and U.S. states forbid completely online betting games.

The world of online marketing has evolved in recent years — and it will continue to do so, especially for casinos. Your digital marketing campaign should begin with a strong, aesthetically pleasing website that houses all the information your potential guests need. Your website should showcase fun, relevant content. In order to create that shareable content, you must have a plan in place for SEO.

As well as optimizing your content on a daily basis, you should also prepare a plan of content for your online casino website. This means you should know how often you can post new articles, giving a sense of continuity to your page. If you don't have many resources to post articles every day, it's not a huge problem. Just make sure your users see that your website is alive and relevant.

Organic traffic is an essential part of any online business. According to research conducted in 2019, 53% of internet traffic comes through organic search. Therefore, if you want to see your website grow and get a faithful customer base you should never discard the importance of an SEO planning strategy.

Many SEO experts defend that it is more important to spend time updating old articles and keeping them relevant, than creating fresh new content every day. Online casino and gambling are constantly changing: betting odds change, casino games are updated and so it's important to revise your articles with new information. SERPs will crawl your website and notice that it has been updated and it will get a boost in its rankings.

Casino SEO is expensive. To get backlinks from authority sources (such as newspapers and blogs with a high volume of traffic), the webmasters will require more money to publish it than they would for other niches. They know about the specificity of the business, the highly competitive market and some of them blatantly refuse to add any gambling related hyperlinks onto their website pages.

You have a considerable job to do as the owner or marketing manager of a casino. Your goal is to bring more people to your establishment and encourage them to try their luck against the house odds. With that goal in mind, it's vital to understand the importance of gaining more online visibility. The bigger and better your online presence, the more people you can expect to walk through the doors of your casino.

Duplicate content is one of the oldest mistakes in the book, but it's one that countless sites continue to make. In the bad old days of search engine marketing, websites would just duplicate the content to launch multiple sites, allowing them to push several sites to the top of the rankings. But this didn't last very long and Google quickly began to punish sites that duplicated content, even if they owned the content they were duplicating.

Another piece of advice is choosing to upload your videos in mp4 format and images in JPEG. These formats are lighter and will reduce the loading time. Also, make sure you delete any dispensable cache which might be slowing you down.

You can expect to see upward movement and tangible results from SEO and/or SEO outreach within 2 to 3 months. However, the best results will roll in from about 6 months onwards. iGaming SEO returns pretty much the same timescale. The main aim is to promote the website without incurring penalties from Google, which is a trap that all too often sorts experienced casino SEO agencies from those who do not understand the specialised demands of the industry. Improving domain authority certainly takes time, but it is possible – even in the most competitive niches.

Nowadays most of the traffic comes from mobile devices. In fact, in the second quarter of 2020 51.53% of traffic worldwide came from cellphones, tablets, and other mobile gadgets. This means that ignoring mobile compatibility on your website will make you probably lose half the audience you could be achieving.

Due to the sensitive nature of casino and betting-related websites, affiliate marketing is one of the most interesting ways to increase your client base. By setting partnerships with trustworthy blogs who have a high number of subscribers and traffic, you will make a name for yourself and give credibility to your brand.

By hiring Fortis Media you save money on all those tools and software that you would probably only use once or twice. You pay for one single service, instead of paying for 10 or 20.

Quality is more important than quantity. Search engines give priority to informative content, original and that differs from all the other available. If you answer the questions you propose in your article and you go straight to the point, instead of filling your pieces of content with 'fluffy words' to make it seem longer, you will be rewarded eventually.

These elements include everything on your website, like page titles, headers, images, and body content. If you've never optimized your site before, these elements should be your first priority.

You can also update your old articles with hyperlinks to new articles you created, or to new services or products you have added recently. Make sure you don't have any links that lead to nowhere or pages that are not user friendly. The easier you make it to navigate between articles and pages, the more likely it will be for your consumers to stick around and visit your website again.

These elements include SEO signals from other websites, such as links, content distribution, and social media marketing. The most important of these is links, as links from reputable sites show search engines that your website is trustworthy. However, off-page SEO takes significantly more time and effort, as you have much less control over the content on other sites.

So, in this article, we share with you some important tips to help your professional gambler business to expand its online influence.

One simple and straight forward way of answering the most searched questions related to your niche and to your service/product is to have a F.A.Q. page. The Frequently Asked Questions answer straight forward query questions, like for example 'how old do you have to be to go to a casino'. Thus, it increases your chances of appearing on SERPs' front pages.

Content is king and if the writer focuses on well-written, well-researched content then they're halfway there. But there's more to it than that. You need links and shares; you need a developer who knows how to implement the content and a marketing team that knows how to push it. That's why the best gambling SEO services are all-encompassing, with multiple experts working on the same projects.

Domain Authority – often referred to as DA - is a search engine ranking score which has been developed by Moz. The score is out of 100, and can be used as a guide for predicting how well a website will rank on search engine result pages (SERPs). Ocere's monthly SEO outreach service can publish links on websites with a DA score ranging from 20/100 to 90 plus – the choice is yours.

If your website is new it will take a while until it becomes indexed into Google search engines. However, there are a few pieces of advice we can give you to have your website indexed quickly.

It's basically revenue sharing and all parts involved win and profit from it. Like in all transactions, the client is what makes this system go around. How? When the consumer clicks on the link and makes a purchase, the affiliate promoter and the original source get a share.

Opening an online casino

Good casino SEO is essential if you want your business to succeed. It doesn't matter how much money you spend on Google Ads, Facebook campaigns, and traditional media, everything comes back to SEO in the end. Get it right, and you'll earn yourself a steady stream of highly-targeted traffic that won't cost you the earth; get it wrong and you could fade into search engine obscurity.

Here are some further tips to improve your online casino website KPI's.

However, those websites will have low authority, so you will have added work to make them rank. High authority websites are normally 3 years or older, and then there is the danger of Google tracking you down. PBN's are easily tracked by SERPs authorities and they can be flagged and penalized. So, like a 'get rich quick scheme' all your money and effort might vanish in a moment of vulnerability.

Ocere has a dedicated team of SEO writers who undertake all the creative content. They will work and liaise closely with the back end team, who will also work on SEO and SEO outreach strategies.

That's why picking an SEO agency who knows what they are doing is crucial: you don't want to compromise the integrity of your company and waste money on a short term strategy.

Make no mistake: content is indispensable and it is the prime source of everything, including traffic. However, as CPR measures things like the hierarchy of titles, meta-descriptions, and alt-texts of images, KPI's focuses on numbers and stats that help you rank the efficiency of your website.

One common mistake when starting an SEO campaign is trying to get immediate results and aiming for unrealistic targets. If you expect to get 100k users per day next week on a website that you launched yesterday, you must know that it's very unlikely to happen.
