UPI payment method has slowly started working on casinos (by our luck). Today's UPI slot sites are much easier to find than a few years ago. Still finding casinos where you can play with UPI is not so easy. This is why we have worked hard for you. The best online casinos accepting UPI are already listed above, but apart from that, we have also prepared answers to the most common questions that players have when using this method for their deposits and withdrawals.

On top of that, UPI is an interface and not a payment solution provider. While a PSP app might require users to complete KYC to avail themselves of other features, the Unified Payments Interface is definitely out of that purview.

You can always expect to experience both positives and negatives of any payment method. UPI is exactly the same, and that's why we have chosen to inform you of these right here. So, what can you expect to benefit from this payment method?

IMPS is another payment gateway that was released before UPI, it's also managed by NPCI and make it possible for online transfers. Deposit and withdrawals are easier with UPI as IMPS involve many more steps. IMPS is not as common on casino sites as both receiver and sender would need to have an Indian bank account to be able to send and receive funds.

One of the downsides of using UPI is that depending upon the bank you hold an account with, there may be transaction fees included. Check with your bank beforehand to verify this.

On the other hand, you can deposit higher amounts and get a welcome bonus of up to $1,200, which is about ₹93,200. For those who stick around, there is also a great VIP and loyalty program, and you become added to it automatically when you register on the platform, as long as you keep coming back to it.

Repeat the aforementioned steps every time you want to use UPI to add funds to your casino account. The process is a no-brainer, which makes the Unified Payments Interface one of the coolest and fastest ways to deposit money when gambling online. Now, wait for some winnings to accumulate so you can get the hang of the process of withdrawal as well.

Presently, you cannot send funds to another country using UPI. However, the NPCI has plans to facilitate international funds transfer soon.
