

Story Flow

The shoemaker is poor, but he cannot make one shoe a day.

That night, the shoemaker puts them on the table and goes to sleep. The next morning, two pairs of splendid are made.

A girl and a woman each buy a pair of beautiful shoes. Soon everyone knows the shoemaker makes splendid shoes.

The shoemaker sees two pretty shoes on the table. But he didn't finish them himself.

The man pays twice the price to buy the shoes. The shoemaker has more money to make more shoes.

That night, the shoemaker and his wife see two kind elves making the shoes.

Target skill: Main idea

The shoemaker is poor, but he cannot make one shoe a day.

Two elves help the shoemaker make a pair of pretty shoes, and a man buys the shoes

People like his shoes, and his life is better. The shoemaker and his wife make things to thank the elves.

A girl and a woman each buy a pair of shoes because they are pretty!

Two kind elves make two more pairs of splendid shoes.

Reader 5-3 The Elves And The Shoemaker

a.

b.

c.

d.

a.

b.

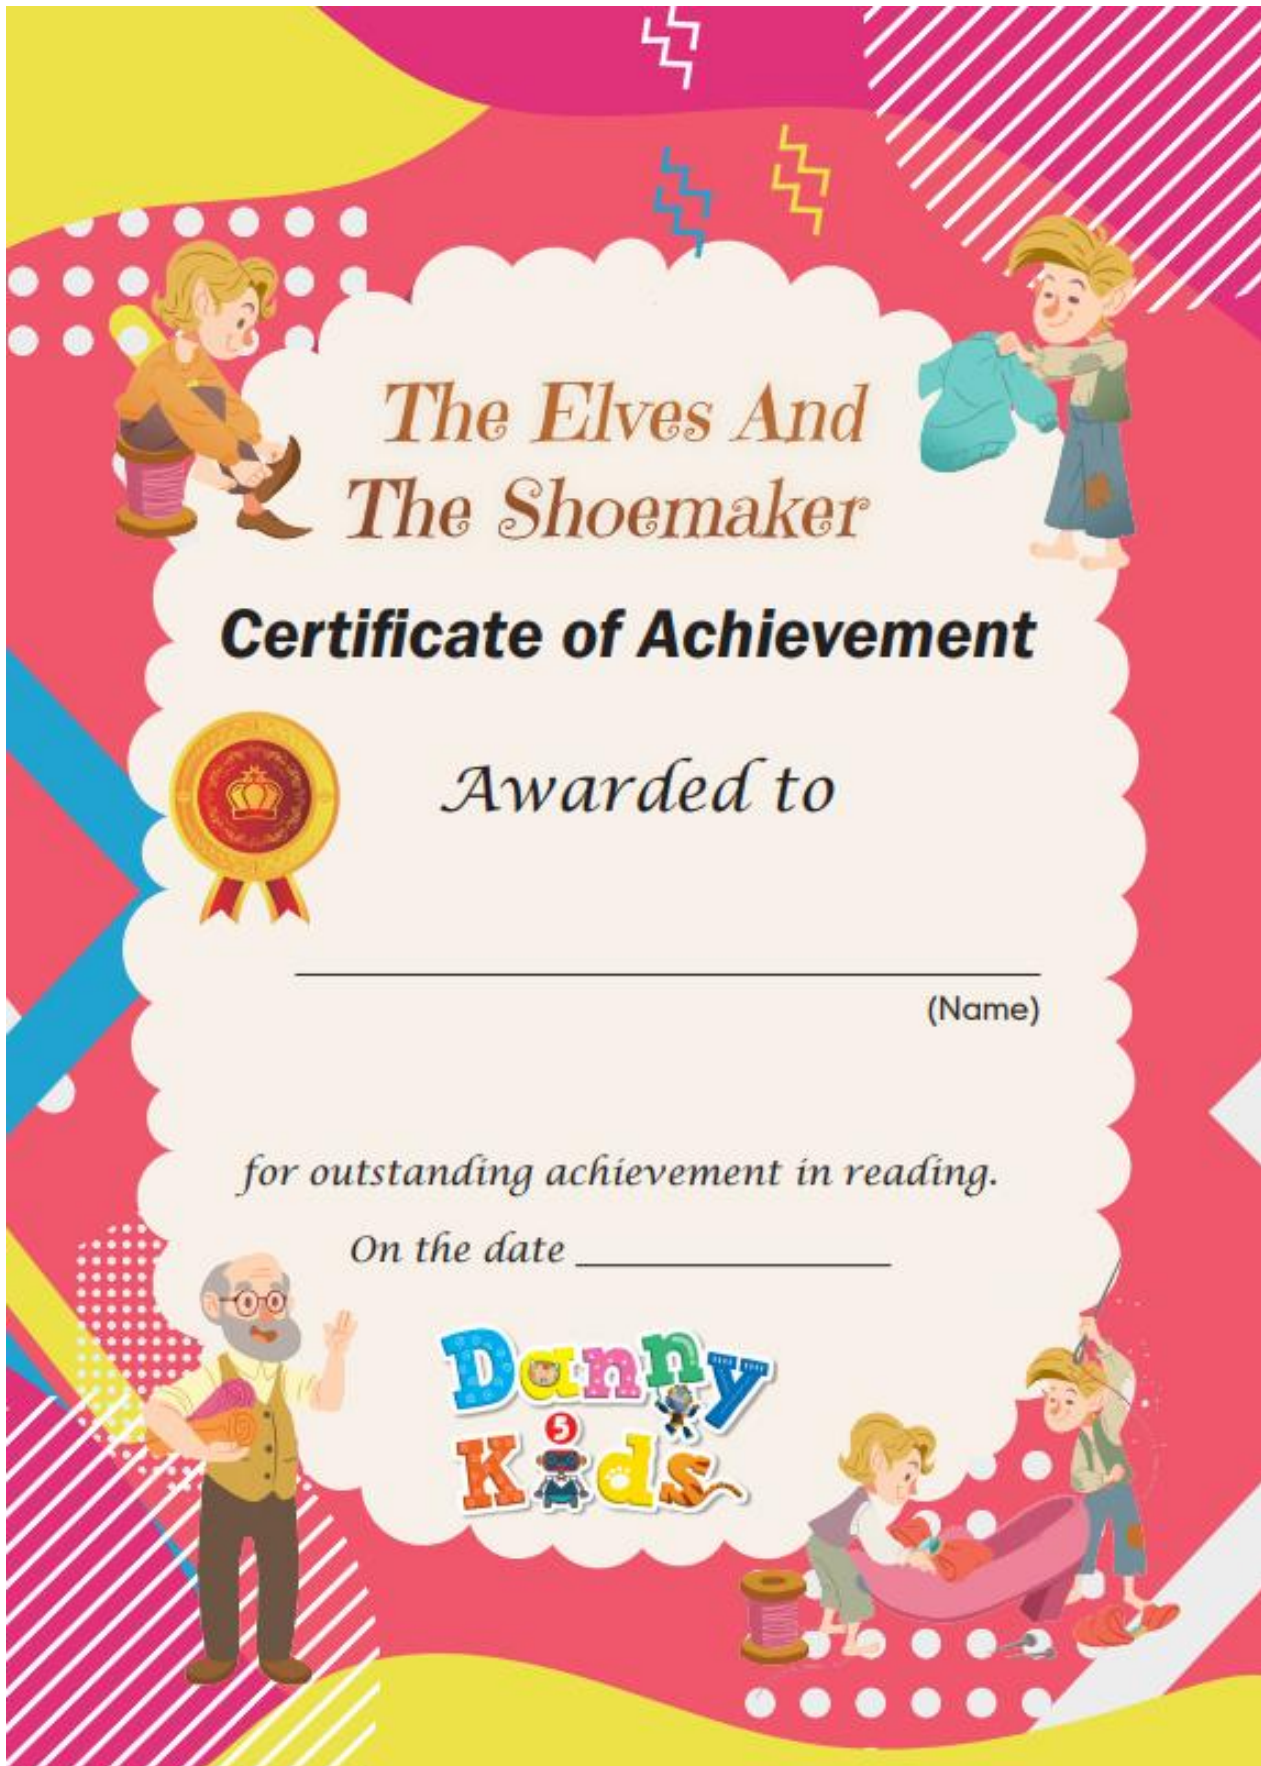

c.

d.

Reader 5-3 The Elves And The Shoemaker

Reader 5-3 The Elves And The Shoemaker