III. Read the story and answer the questions (10 %)

Banjo, Loo Loo and Skater continue their adventures. They go to Auckland, New Zealand. It is one of the easternmost countries in the world. Banjo learns that some people like the morning, but some don't.

Skater takes Banjo and Loo Loo to the very best school in Finland. Students need to ask a lot of questions and tell the teacher what they want to learn.

The best types of clothes for him are his normal shorts and hoodie. This is what he learns about clothes. Banjo has hobbies now. He likes riding a bike. He is good at playing the guitar, dancing and painting.

In Greece, Banjo takes a break. "If I learn about myself, I would be happier," he thinks. He feels lucky that he has Loo Loo and Skater, and he feels happy that he is on a great adventure.

1. What does Banjo learn in Auckland, New Zealand?

2. What do the students need to do in Finland?

3. What are the best types of clothes for Banjo?

4. Name a hobby that Banjo likes to do.

5. Why does Banjo feel lucky?

NOTES:

1. Prepare a story book Go! Go! Banjo (2).
2. Have the students do Part A (III) and Part B (I~III) together first.
3. Call on the students to do Part A (I) and (II) in another room individually. Tell them to bring their test papers, so you can mark their scores.
4. You should be able to finish the test in two hours if there are about 20 students in your class.
