Nathan: Don't remind me. Hey, most of them are either brown or white. Why is that?

Molly: I'm not sure, but there are some orange ones over there.

Nathan: Oh, yeah, but very few of them are black, and I would really love one of them.

Molly: That's because most people are afraid of black cats and few of them want to bring them into their homes.

Nathan: Not me. I'm going to have a closer look at those black ones then.

Molly: I like the one on the right. It looks really friendly.

Nathan: True, but this one over here is all by itself. It looks so lonely.
