Jenny: Have you ever heard of J. K. Rowling?

Alan: Of course, I have. She wrote the famous Harry Potter series.

Jenny: Have you read any of those books? I've read all of them and can't get enough of them. Her magic has touched millions of people all over the world.

Alan: To be honest, I haven't read any of those books yet, but I have watched all the Harry Potter movies. I am so busy that I don't have time to read.

Jenny: How do you like the movies?

Alan: They are quite interesting and exciting, especially when Harry Potter uses his magic wand.

Jenny: I agree, and if you read the books, you'll find them even more interesting and exciting than the movies.

Alan: Maybe I'll give it a try.

Jenny: I am sure you will love them as much as I do.

(On Wednesday night)

Gina: Hey, Bob, do you have Sally's number? She's having a birthday party for her little brother this weekend, and she asked if I could help her prepare.

Bob: I do, but I'm actually just about to leave for her place. Do you want to come with me?

Cindy: What? Sally's going to have a party? When and where? How come everyone knows except me?

Gina: Don't be upset, Cindy. You told us that you're going to have a big test early next week, so we didn't want you to lose focus. What's more, your place is quite far from Sally's, and you don't have a car. We didn't think it would be convenient for you to go.

Bob: Gina's right. Also, Sally said she would ask the three of us out after your test. So, just get ready for your test, and we'll let you keep informed.

Cindy: All right. I'll go get her brother a birthday gift tomorrow. Can you take it to the party for me?

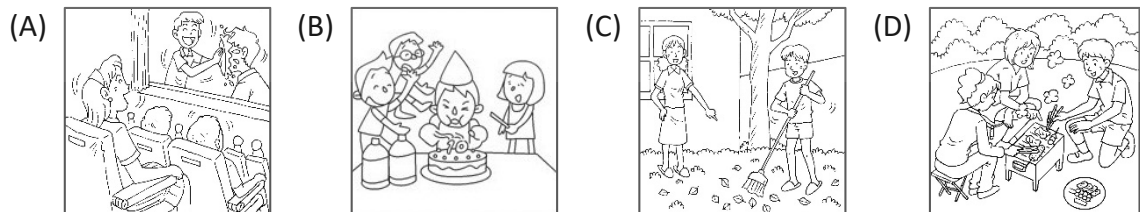

Gina&Bob: It will be our pleasure.
