Dear Ms. Chou,

Several of Jay's teachers have come to me with complaints about him in the past few weeks. All of them said that he didn't behave, no matter he was in or out of class. He continued even after he was given warnings and told to stop. His actions have affected the lessons, and some of his classmates have even been hurt by the things that he's said and done. The teachers also told me that they've written you many times about this, but you haven't answered yet.

Sincerely,
