五、閱讀測驗（每題 3 分，共 6 題）

When I was a little girl, my mom told me The Wolf in Sheep's Clothing story. I found it funny, and the picture of a wolf wearing sheep skin stayed with me for some time. Although I liked it, I didn't really understand its lesson at that time.

If you ask me about that today, I will be able to tell you without any problem. That's because I lived through it last year when a new student joined my class. At first, he looked like any teenager in high school. He had a nice face and was friendly to all the girls. He didn't seem any different from us. As it turned out, he was a man in his early thirties. What's more, he took pictures of girls in the restroom and put them on the Internet. Luckily, the school caught and turned him over to the police right away.

Dear Ms. Watson,

Thanks for reading my letter. I'm a new student in Class 801. I'm from Canada, and I moved to Hsinchu with my mother last month. We came here because of her work.

My school life here is fine. My favorite classes at school are math, PE, and English. I like your class a lot because you always encourage students to practice speaking. In your class, I can talk with my classmates in English instead of Chinese. In fact, my Chinese is very poor. Although I spend a lot of time practicing Chinese with my friends, I just can't understand the meaning of many words. So, I want to ask some help from you. If you have free time, could you give me some useful tips for learning Chinese?

Sorry for bothering you. Please reply if it's convenient for you.

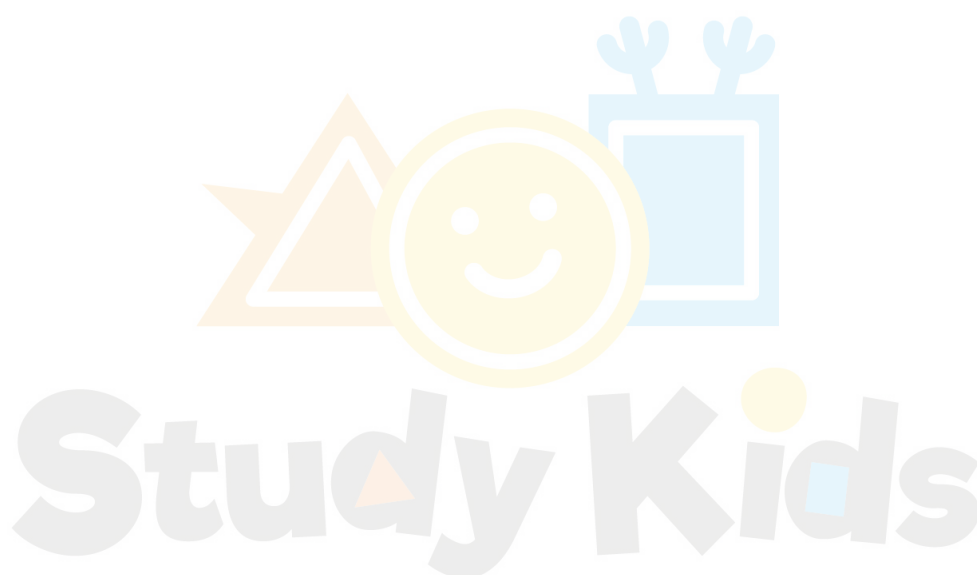

Best regards,

Ryan
