Nicole often goes to the zoo to see her favorite animal in the whole world. She loves looking at its big head with even bigger ears. Although its eyes are really small, they fit perfectly with its large black nose. To Nicole, it looks like a stone, but it just makes the face look even cuter. In her eyes, the animal's face is the cutest thing ever. Nicole plans to fly to Australia and see the animal in person one day. Also, if she gets the chance, she would like to touch its beautiful gray hair and give it leaves to eat. After that, she can take pictures of it when it climbs up into a tree. It moves just like a bear, but it isn't a bear and has no tail. If that happens, she will be the happiest person on the planet.
