(一)

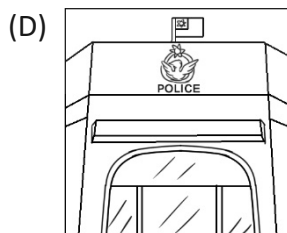

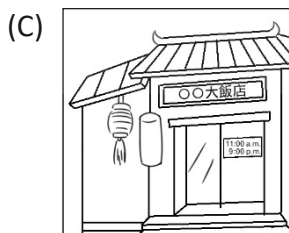

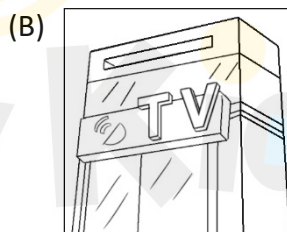

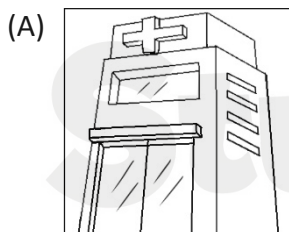

Thank you for being with us this morning. I'm Tom Anderson. We have breaking news from the SK newsroom. Our reporter Cindy Liu is reporting live at the scene.

Thanks Tom. We are here on Zhongxiao East Road, Taipei City. Traffic is always heavy on this road from 7 a.m. to 9 a.m. on weekdays. A woman was hurrying to work, so she travelled at speed on the road. When the police officer saw the woman, he waved his arms and stopped her. Because she was driving very fast then, she couldn't stop her car. She just hit the police officer. Then, two cooks, Jason and Terry, ran out of their shops and sent the police officer to the hospital. And the woman, Jessica, is at the police station now. Back to you, Tom.

Thank you, Cindy. We will keep watching this story. OK, let's go on next story....

Olivia: Elva, why were you late for school this morning?

Elva: I saw a strange thing on my way to school. A man was shouting when I was at the bus stop.

Olivia: Why was he shouting?

Elva: He was shouting at a dog because it was on the road. He had to avoid it, so he fell off from his motorcycle. He felt so angry, and everyone was looking at him.

Olivia: That's terrible. Was the dog OK?

Elva: Not so good. Its leg was bleeding, so I took it to an animal hospital. In the end, someone called the police, and the man was taken to the police station. I also uploaded a video about that man to YouTube. You can watch it later.

(After a few minutes.)

Olivia: I watched that video. Many people call that man "Shouting Brother" now.
